

City supports Haiti Relief efforts

The Mayor, City Council and Staff are proud to support the Haiti relief efforts of Palm Beach County Haiti Relief, Inc. The City of Riviera Beach in partnership with the Port of Palm Beach, City of West Palm Beach, The Urban League, Palm Beach County School District, Riviera Beach Youth Recreation Association and many others are coordinating efforts to collect medical supplies, blankets, first aid kits, flashlights and batteries, antibiotics, generators, towels/washcloths, peanut butter and snack-type food/granola bars.

Drop off locations for Palm Beach County Haiti Relief, Inc. efforts are:

- City of Riviera Beach Fire Stations
- City of West Palm Beach Fire Stations
- City of Delray Beach Fire Stations
- Urban League of Palm Beach County
- Mt. Olive Baptist Church, 3700 Avenue O, Riviera Beach, FL
- RJ's Lounge – 3111 45th Street, Suite 15, West Palm Beach, FL

To contribute to the Palm Beach County Haiti Relief efforts, please make all checks payable to the Urban League Haiti Relief Fund.

Volunteer opportunities for collection, sorting and packaging items are also available. For additional information on contributing or volunteering for the Palm Beach County Haiti relief efforts, please contact the Office of Mayor Thomas Masters at 561-845-4145 or Port Commissioner Wayne Richards at 561-841-4529.