

Patron Code of Conduct

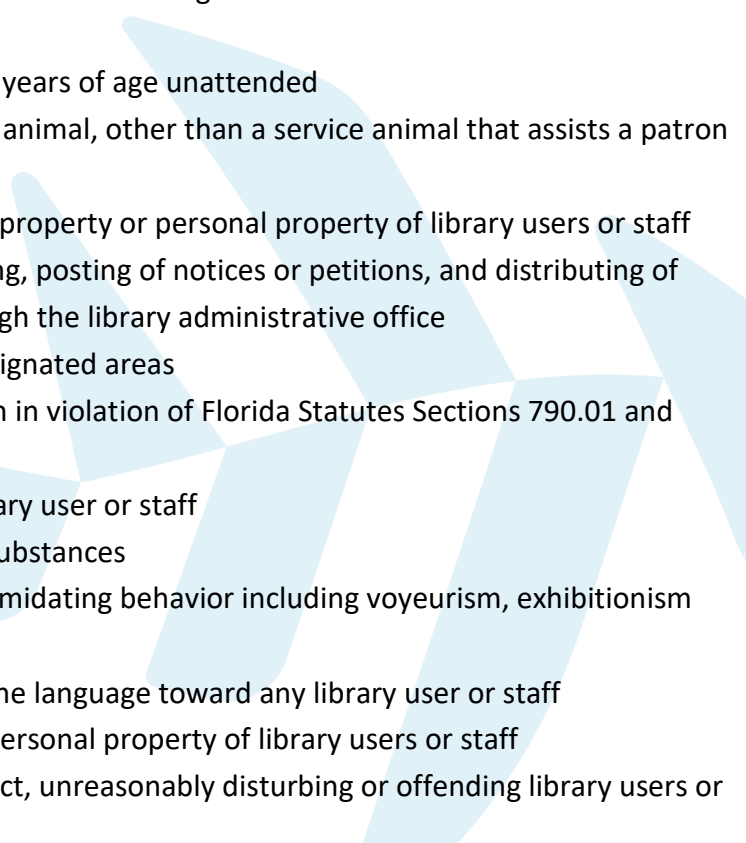

Welcome to the Riviera Beach Public Library. Our library is supported by the taxes of the citizens of the City of Riviera Beach who have a right to expect the library to be a clean, pleasant and safe place for selecting materials, reading, researching, studying, writing and attending Riviera Beach Public Library sponsored or community programs and meetings. For the comfort and safety of all library patrons, all library users must adhere to this code. The spirit of this code is to ensure a pleasant environment for everyone who is using the library.

Further, the Riviera Beach Public Library's Code of Patron Conduct is intended to encourage behavior which supports the Library's mission to provide information and resources in an acceptable welcoming environment. The code is also designed within the framework of existing local, state and federal laws, the American Library Association (ALA) Code of Professional Ethics, ALA's Guidelines for the Development of Policies and Procedures Regarding User Behavior and Library Usage (January 24, 1993), and the Library Bill of Rights. The Riviera Beach Public Library strives to provide facilities in which both library users and staff can be free from harassment, intimidation, and threats to their safety.

Expected Behavior

Library users are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not violate the rights of others, and does not result in damage to library property. As such, the Riviera Beach Public Library expects its patrons to conduct themselves in the following manner:
